

Terrorism for the Technician/Specialist

HazMat/WMD

DATE:

June 21-22, 2011

LOCATION:

CSTI, San Luis Obispo, CA

This course trains emergency responders currently certified at the Hazardous Materials Technician or Specialist level response tactics and skills for terrorist events. Some of the topics covered include the following:

- Chemical Agents and Response Tactics
- Identification of various chemical agents, their hazard class and associated hazards
- Detection Equipment and Application in Detecting Chemical Agents
- Medical Management of Terrorist Events
- Aseptic Sampling and Field Testing for Biological Agents
- Radiological Response and Radiological Dispersion Device Response Tactics
- Explosives, Improvised Explosive Devices (IED) and Booby Trap Recognition
- Procedures to implement mass decontamination
- Field Tactics for Biological Agents

Prerequisite: Hazardous Materials Technician or Specialist Certification

Tuition: $500.00

DHS Approval # CA-050-RESP

To apply: Complete, sign and send a CSTI application and a copy of your CSTI Certificate to the Hazardous Materials Course Registrar. Apply immediately online at www.csti.ca.gov. Applications are available for download at the website. An information packet and map will be sent 4-8 weeks prior to the course.

For registration questions contact: Annabelle Dixon at 805-549-3344, or annabelle.dixon@calema.ca.gov. Fax (805) 549-3555

For course content questions contact: Janeen Rich at (916) 845-8254 or, janeen.rich@calema.ca.gov.